The ... an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, ...ed to the public, in connection with the theory ... it is based, is destined to effect an entire revo[lution in] the treatment of the diseases of

[SC]ROFULA AND KING'S EVIL!

[Er]adicating the disease entirely from the blood. The [FOUNTA]IN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable ... It contains no Mercury or other mineral sub[stance].

[The P]roprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy [CHALLE]NGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from [the days] of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the [annals o]f Medical Science, which can vie with or excel [the curat]ive properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its ... been tested with the happiest effect in the most ... cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the [most emi]nent physicians in the world. No matter what ... dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S ... have assumed, it can in no way be more safely ... arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S [GREAT] BLOOD PURIFIER. Thousands have been swept [into their] graves, who had they made a timely use of the [FOUNT]AIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the bless[ings of] life and health. It requires an article of real ... intrinsic value to sustain itself. During the ... of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF [LIFE ha]s stood the test trial, and not been found wanting. [D]r. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of [SCROFU]LA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate ... entirely from the system, or no charge made ... they will secure him his pay when they are ...

FOR REFERENCE:

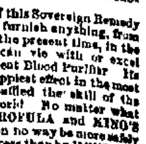

[I] refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, [and n]umbers of others, as to what a miraculous ... had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the [skill of] physicians for years.

PIONEER WASHER.
JAMES BRUSIE,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing. It is easily worked by one person.

This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to aid housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.

It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.

The undersigned is now in the city of Portland, where he can be seen at Mr. O. Kilbourn's Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts., East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

[FROM AN OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENT.]

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK, May 12, 1867.

HOMEWARD BOUND OREGONIANS—MINING INTERESTS IN NEW YORK—A MILL FOR WAR EAGLE LEDGE.

The Pacific Mail steamer, Henry Chauncey, which sailed yesterday for Aspinwall, had among her passengers but few Oregonians, though she was crowded with persons going to all parts of the Pacific coast. Among the Oregonians I saw Professor Marsh, of Forrest Grove, who takes out $25,000 as an additional endowment to the Pacific University, of which he is the President. That he succeeded at this time in raising the sum is evidence of his great energy and good judgment, because there has not been such stringency in the money market for many years as now prevails, rendering it almost impossible to secure new or outside investments. Schemes which would command any quantity of money on two hours' notice two and three years ago would now insult a capitalist if brought to his notice. This is particularly true of all mining interests, and those on the Pacific side who have mines will do well to work them or let them lie idle, for they would only meet with failure and embarrassment by bringing them East in the hope to enlist capital to work them on any terms.

G. Collier Robbins, Superintendent of the New York and Owyhee G. & S. M. Co., went out on this steamer. After a brief sojourn in Portland he will proceed to Owyhee and commence operations for his company, and will also commence work on the War Eagle ledge, for which he has ordered a mill from this city of the style known as the "Little Giant"—a species of crusher or grinder. In a future letter I will give a full description of this mill, and what it proposes to do. It is understood here that the New York and Owyhee Company bought out the interest of the Poorman Company in the Poorman ledge, and that the work on that ledge will accordingly be conducted by the former company.

QUARTZ MINING IN THE EAST.

In this connection I will mention the fact that gold and silver quartz mining is beginning to attract some attention on this coast. During the past winter a company was organized in Albany with a very large amount of capital to work an extensive silver ledge in this State, about seventy miles north-west from Albany. The ledge is about fifty-five feet wide and has been traced by the outcrop nearly half a mile, and contains very rich silver ores—resembling those of the Yuba district in Idaho. I was present when a large quantity of the ore was tested and it proved to be almost equal in richness to the Poorman. Several companies have been organized during the winter, both in this city, and in Washington and Baltimore to work gold quartz ledges in North Carolina. Major Stevens, Secretary to the Committee on Appropriations in the House of Representatives, formerly Superintendent of the Mint at San Francisco, and a Paymaster in the Army—a son-in-law of the late Senator Baker of Oregon, is at the head of one of the companies. He is now in this city selecting machinery for the company. Col. H. H. Raymond, who has been many years engaged in quartz mining in Nevada, California and Idaho, has been down to North Carolina and Georgia and says that the mines in that region look as favorable as any on the Pacific. Quite a number of members and ex-members of Congress, among them Windom, of Minnesota; Alley, of Massachusetts; and Rice, of Maine, have organized an extensive company for the purpose of working placer mines in a branch of the Chattahoochee river in Georgia, near the Dahlonega, near which they claim that in times past nearly $12,000,000 has been taken from the little mountain streams by hand process alone.

Senator Nesmith did not receive a single vote in the Senate for confirmation to the Austrian mission.

OLD OREGONIANS.

Among the old Oregonians who have recently settled in this city as their future home, is Col. D. Wm. Douthitt, who took to himself a wife just one week ago, and has gone to living in style. There is something almost romantic about his marriage. About a month ago he left the hotel and concluded to take board in a private house, where he could have more comfort and quiet. Accordingly he came across a suitable place, where the land lady was a charming widow with a few children—enough for a start, where he pitched his tent, and after partaking of her bounteous hospitalities and enjoying her precious smiles for three weeks, she, with all her loveliness and children, suddenly became his own. All this he accomplished without the knowledge or consent of a single Pacific coaster, and it would not have been known even to this day had it not been for the indiscretion of a lady contraband. Walter Davis who formerly lived in the Dalles and Walla Walla country, also in Idaho, is trying to go in the Nicholson pavement business in Delaware and Maryland. Dr. C. Hoel, of Salem, the man whom "Bush" called the "red nigger," has just gone into partnership with Dr. R. T. Trall, of this city, the father of the Hydropathic medical system. They contemplate establishing themselves in Philadelphia, where they will open an Institute. H. R. Kincaid, of the Eugene State Journal is a capitol policeman at Washington—a dry land marine. He came east to study the condition of society and make himself familiar with public men and measures, and to visit the great battlefields of the Republic. Governor Curry, (Geo. L.) is in the city, occasionally calling a meeting of Pacific coast men and introducing the speakers to the meeting, and attending to other important business.

FORTUNE HUNTER'S FROM THE PACIFIC.

There are a large number of Oregonians, Idahoans and Californians in the city who came here to make their fortunes, but only succeeded in spending what little they had, and are now too poor to get away and almost too poor to get their daily bread. One of the great California stock operators, who formerly counted his money by thousands and had good credit, went home yesterday in the steamer as a steerage passenger, and may be regarded as exceedingly fortunate in being able to do that. These men are all regarded as "dead beats," and may be seen at all times loitering about the large hotels, picking their teeth and "striking" every man who has a little money for "a few dollars" for a "few days," until they "close up their sale." This class is not confined exclusively to those from the Pacific coast, for the city is full of them, from all parts of the country. If we go down to the Stock Exchange in Broad street we can find swarms of these "lame ducks" and "dead beats"—men who have once been famous at the rat pit, but have since been "cleaned out." Being unable to settle their "differences" they are not allowed to come inside an iron railing which separates them from the "operators." Nevertheless, they cannot keep away from the place of their former glory. Day after day they come and range themselves along their iron grating and look over at the rat pit with the strongest expression of intelligent vacancy and longing despair that can be found this side of purgatory. Indeed, they seem to be part of the furniture of the room. I write this as a warning to the ambitious web footer who has longings to come East where they can shine in proportion to their abilities.

The spring time on this coast generally opens out propitiously — and promises bounteous crops and an abundance of fruits for the farmer, while the merchants, bankers, swindlers and swells are preparing to go to the watering places for summer resort.

In my next, I will give you a full resume of the political situation with a synopsis of the Presidential scheme and their candidates, and will here only hint that Salmon P. Chase is the coming man.

Yours truly, H. C.

This mot attributed to Gortchakoff, shows the German appreciation of the French Emperor: "Bismark keeps Napoleon on his legs by boxing his ears first on the right side and then on the left."

A man in Boston who minds his own business, has sold lobsters in front of Faneuil Hall for 20 years, and has seen the whole of the topography of the city where he was born 70 years ago changed, was inside the State House for the first time the other day.

LETTER FROM OWYHEE.

RUBY CITY, I. T., June 4th, 1867.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

As a partial compensation for the pleasure and profit I have derived from a regular perusal of your, columns I have concluded to give you a few items from this vicinity, hoping they may interest some of your readers.

THE MINES.

Our mining camp is now fast emerging from the lethargy into which it was thrown by the winter. Signs of activity and "better times coming" are visible on every hand. As the roads to this place are now in good condition once more, travel has greatly increased and lately arrivals have been quite numerous, embracing persons from nearly all parts of the world. This, with the present brightening prospects of our principal ledges, are now making business more lively than heretofore, and our merchants especially are anticipating a lively season.

Under the judicious and industrious superintendence of Chas. S. Peck, the Poorman is now in a better condition for active operations than any other mine in camp. During the present week stopping is to commence in the south shaft and as fast as it may be necessary the force of workmen will be increased.

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the Oro Fino & Morning Star ledge. The ore averages $40 a ton and when the new shaft now in course of preparation is put down, this result will doubtless be greatly augmented. This shaft is to be put down fifty feet as soon as possible. There is about five feet of quartz in the ledge and the ore coming from it looks very well indeed.

Other companies are also actively preparing for the summer's harvest and, with the aid of Eastern capital now pretty freely coming in, our mines will be fairly developed before long.

MILITARY.

Contracts for forage and fuel for the various military posts—Camps Lyon, Winthrop and Smith—were let last Friday and Saturday. As there has been a great deal of money made out of these contracts heretofore much interest was felt and quite a lively competition sprang up. As it is but a few hours' ride over a good road to Camp Lyon, I consented to accompany some friends to that place to see who should be the lucky man. We reached the Camp on Thursday morning, and were very kindly received by the gentlemanly officers of the garrison. The Camp is quite pleasantly located, on a little trout stream called Cow Creek, which issues from the western base of War Eagle mountain, and empties into Jordan river about 25 miles above its junction with the Owyhee. It is about 18 miles west from this town. It consists of something over a dozen log houses, comprising officers' quarters, barracks for one company, stables, quartermaster and commissary storehouses, blacksmith shop, hospital, guardhouse and laundry. These buildings are comfortable in the summer time but very poor affairs to winter in—not so good as soldiers who [illegible] [en]dure the hardships of campaigning in [illegible] try deserve. But few of the houses have [shingle] roofs, and none excepting the office [illegible] have other than dirt floors. They [illegible] lumber was very high [illegible] only. Now that [illegible] tively cheap, and [illegible] at least one year [illegible] all means have [illegible] dition. During a [illegible] last winter the men were compelled [illegible] a dirt roof and without a floor, [illegible] was impossible [illegible] clean or comfortable. We [illegible] Way mire, the wide awake quartermaster [of] the post has made estimates for building material to fit up the buildings so as, at least [illegible] his stores and secure the comfort [illegible] lodging by the shrewd business [illegible] letting the contracts, I think [illegible] could be entrusted with public expen[diture]. It seems unreasonable that while hundreds of thousands of dollars are expended in adding [illegible] luxuries of such posts as Walla Walla and Boise a few thousand should not be allowed for the actual comfort of men in the field.

The garrison has recently sustained a [loss in] G. D. Conrad, Esq., late a captain in the [Cali]fornia Cavalry, and recently post sutler, who [died] the evening of the 29th ult., from brain fever with which he was attacked in this city about a week ago. He had been a brave and energetic officer and was highly esteemed as a generous hearted gentleman by all who knew him. Dr. Bryant the post surgeon, and all the officers of the post were untiring in their attentions to [illegible] his illness, and on Thursday evening he was followed to his grave by the entire garrison under the direction of Major Hunt, paid [illegible] honors to him. His friends from the vicinity acted as pall bearers and at the grave a very appropriate prayer was said by Lieut. Waymire. Together it was an impressive scene, showing most touchingly that life on the frontier does not necessarily destroy the better qualities of human nature.

LETTING OF CONTRACTS.

By noon of the 31st a great multitude of citizens interested in the contest for contracts had gathered at the post. More than sixty bids were received. The proposals on the grain ranged from 11 cents to 5 cents per pound; the hay and straw from $50 to $24 per ton; the wood from $20 to $9 87 per cord, and charcoal from $1 25 to 48½ cents per bushel. The quartermaster succeeded in closing for each article at the lowest rates. These lowest rates were evidently put in as "straw bids," with a view to securing higher rates, but somehow those who proposed them became fearful that they were known and that they would be reported as irresponsible bidders and accepted them. A fair profit, by close management, may be made out of all the contracts. They are less than half of the rates of last year. Great credit is due to the quartermaster, Lieut. Waymire, for the spirit of strict honesty and fairness in which he attended to his duties. He seemed as anxious to economize as if he were doing business on his own capital. If there is any dissatisfaction at the result it is felt by the successful bidders at not getting higher rates. For my part, I would not like to invest in the business at the prices stipulated. Wm. Hardy got the contract for the grain—350,000 pounds; E. C. Hardy, the wood—200 cords; Robert Smith, the hay and straw—240 tons, and John Henry, the charcoal—200 bushels.

OPERATIONS AGAINST THE INDIANS.

While at Camp Lyon, I learned some good news from Gen. Crook. He intends organizing an expedition of four companies, if possible, for operations west of Stein's mountain. For this purpose the Cavalry companies of Major Myers, Major Perry and Major Hunt, and the Infantry company of Major Walker (to be mounted) will be taken. The preliminary steps for these operations have already been taken. Perry and Hunt's companies are ordered to be at Camp C. F. Smith by the 15th of this month. Major Hunt has permission to go to San Francisco on business connected with his company and he will turn over the company to Capt Harris, his 1st Lieutenant, who will command it during the ensuing summer. He is a brave and efficient officer and anxious for active service, having been confined to staff duty at this post for some time. Lieut. Waymire with 20 men, will remain at Camp Lyon. Col. Coppenger is ordered to scour the country on the head of the Owyhee with 40 men of his company (to be mounted.) Gen. Crook's expedition cannot begin operations till his animals arrive from California, which will be about the 1st of July. He is determined to close out these Indian difficulties this season if possible. He is certainly "the right man in the right place," and we all most heartily wish him success.

The Indians have been very quiet here of late. This is attributed in great part to the presence of Major Hunt's Company. As soon as it leaves we expect a renewal of their depredations. They are a great curse to this country and until they are thoroughly subjugated we cannot expect to see this mining region half developed. C.

The conservative people of Norfolk, Virginia, are said to feel sorrowful because Senator Wilson was not opposed by some of their leading men, believing that if he had been, he would have been "completely frustrated and discouraged, and would have returned North." Conceit is a tenacious quality.

WHAT A LEADING FRENCH JOURNAL SAYS OF THE GREAT SHOW.—It would seem the [illegible] thought of the Commission had been to sweat the affair as the commercial slang goes that is, to make it yield as much money as possible to the shareholders. Nothing [illegible] has been neglected [illegible] curiosity and real industry seems to [illegible] a pretext so completely does it disappear [illegible] the strange exhibitions which surround it. In the garden numberless small houses of every [illegible] mosques Egyptians and Japanese temples pagodas churches, and ruined towers, have been constructed in the galleries, a sort of retrospective museum of curiosities has been formed, which has no business to be there unless placed [illegible] side with similar objects manufactured in [the] present day. Fossil bones are exhibited, and [illegible] has sent antiquities found in the [illegible] tombs. Industry, it seems to me, has [nothing] to do with all this. The trivial and toy[like] predominate each, at least in the first im[pression] [illegible] obtained. The garden with its little [illegible] its little temples, its little rocks, and its [illegible] resembles an immense plaything made for the King of Brobdignag. There is a want of [illegible] and real utility in the [illegible], but the crowd [must] be attracted and that is what was desired [above] all things.—Paris Debats, April 4th.

We learn from New York papers that a bill is before the Legislature of that State to raise the [illegible] or tax upon all emigrants arriving at the port of New York one dollar a head. At present the Commissioner of Emigration collect two dollars and a half for every emigrant landing at Castle Garden. They desire to collect three and a half in future. The Herald says: "There are other fees and penalties which come in their hands, swelling their collections to a large amount during the year, and it is now said that they have several hundred thousand dollars on hand, and, as their expenditures are entirely at their own discretion, it is difficult to understand what necessity they can find for raising more money." The extra dollar clearly ought not to be extracted from the poor emigrants.

The ex-guerrilla Mosby has retracted his declaration that "Mosby and his Men," by T. M. Crawford, contains no more truth than the "Arabian Nights." He says: "While the book presents a very incomplete and fragmentary view of the subject of which it treats, yet it has not been composed with the disregard of historical truth that might be implied from the opinion pronounced by me."

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1867.

The "Democratic Debts"—Positive Proof of their Existence.

The following extraordinary statements appeared in the Herald of yesterday:

We defy any man to show from the record, debts which had previously accrued to the amount of the money on hand when Mayor Failing came into office, and which have since been paid. Mayor Failing reports in June, 1864, something over $19,000 of liabilities. He estimated in this amount a judgment of John B. Garrison for $5,413 45, for damages sustained some years previously, and which had not been confirmed; an appropriation of $6,000 for an engine house, not one cent upon which had then been expended; and $5,000 for a fire engine, which was not purchased or paid for until Mr. Failing had gone out of office, and which is to be paid for out of the present year's taxes. Here is over sixteen thousand of the less than twenty thousand liabilities, accounted for; leaving but a little over $3,000 of debts which had then accrued, and over $5,000 in the treasury to meet it.

I. In April, 1864, when Mayor Failing came into office, he reported the amount of money then in the treasury at $781 93 in legal tender notes, which, as stated in his message of June, 1865, were sold at 50 cents on the dollar. The actual amount in the treasury at the beginning of Mayor Failing's first term, (the time when Democratic rule ended) was therefore $390 96. Hence, on the authority of Mayor Failing's messages, we assert that when he took the office there was only $390 96 (coin valuation) in the treasury, instead of over $5,000, as stated by the Herald.

II. On the same authority we assert that the debt of the city, at the commencement of Mayor Failing's term of office, (exclusive of the judgment obtained by J. B. Garrison, amounting to upwards of $5,000,) was near $14,000, as already stated by us repeatedly. To prove this we quote from Mayor Failing's message of June, 1865:

At the commencement of my term of office in April of last year, it was found to be impossible to make any report of the financial condition of the city. No accounts had been kept except a list of the warrants drawn. It was impossible to ascertain the amount of warrants remaining unpaid, except by a comparison of this list with the warrants returned by the Treasurer. No account had been kept of money appropriated to meet contracts made by the Council, or of appropriations made for any special purpose. Since that time there has been paid on claims arising on contracts and appropriations made by the former Council, $13,612 68.

Will the Herald, or its backers, Holmes, Hallock & Co., with all their impudence, dare to assert again that when Mayor Failing came into office the city was not in debt? Will they dare to assert again that, at that time, there was over $5,000 in the treasury? We repeat once more, that when the Holmes, Hallock and Dodge clique were driven out of office in 1864, the debt of the city, including the Garrison judgment, was nearly $20,000. Our authority for this statement is cited above, and whoever has the hardihood hereafter to gainsay it, let him undertake the job.

III. In his estimate of the liabilities of the city, Mayor Failing included the Garrison judgment, amounting to over $5,000, as this judgment had then been obtained, and payment was required. But he did not include in these liabilities any appropriation of $6,000 for an engine house, unless indeed, that appropriation was part of the great mass of undistinguishable debts left to the city by the "retrenchers" when they were expelled from office. He nowhere makes any mention of "$6,000 for an engine house." Nor does he include "$5,000 for a steam fire engine." Before he came into office an ordinance had been passed authorizing the purchase of such an engine; but Mayor Failing recommended the repeal of the ordinance, which was almost immediately done. This was in 1864. During the remainder of his term of office he had nothing to do with the steam fire engine and makes no mention of it in any estimate ... to the Council.

The ... from these statements are, that when the ... of the Democratic "retrenchers" were dispensed with by the people in 1864 the amount of cash in the treasury was $390 96; that the amount of old debts hanging over the city ... on contracts and appropriations ... by the former Council, ... city warrants," was $13,072 08; and ... added to the Garrison judgment amounted to nearly $20,000—which sum ... amount of debt left to the city by the Holmes, Hallock and Dodge clique in 1864, and ... by their successors in office ... the last three years. The fact of the existence of these "Democratic debts" is therefore ... established, and will never be denied again. The ... was simply an unscrupulous device for electioneering purposes, and to characterize it as false ... would be a weak method of describing its baseness.

Holmes' Extra Police Force.

A few weeks ago an ordinance was drawn up by Mayor Holmes and read a first and second time in the Council, which beautifully illustrates that dignitary's idea of "retrenchment." It provided that a majority of the Council ... from time to time, and as often as it should ... appoint an indefinite number of policemen each of whom should be paid at the rate of $... per month. But unfortunately for Holmes' ... scheme, the ordinance was indefinitely postponed on the 24th of April last. It can be seen however on file at the City Clerk's ... with ... and in handwriting to show ... Its perusal will disclose the plan ... enable the Democratic Mayor to secure the appointment of an indefinite number of his "strikers;" putting each upon a salary of $100 per month. It is a well known fact that this was a scheme concocted for the purpose of carrying the city election, and had it prevailed, it was the intention to use this appointing power to any extent which might be necessary to secure a Democratic victory in this city. It had been agreed to start with six of these paid men at $600 per month. This would have been paying $400 per month more than the city ever before paid. It was a pet "retrenchment" measure with Holmes; but his majority in the Council, though usually very subservient to their master's wishes, on this occasion defeated his plan. They had sagacity enough to know it that it wouldn't do.

Holm... T...

It is a notorious fact that Holmes did not pay his taxes for the years 1863, 1864 and 1865 till his property was advertised for sale, and he was compelled to pay in order to save it. His organ asserts that he merely refused to pay an illegal tax in 1863, and that the Courts sustained him in common with many other citizens for so doing. Everybody knows that he refused to pay legal, as well as illegal taxes in 1863. The levy for that year was ten mills, only half of which was legal. Several citizens refused to pay the illegal portion of the tax; but Holmes refused to pay any tax at all. The tax of five mills was legal and was paid without a question by all ... except Holmes. And as he had got off without paying taxes in 1863, he tried it again the next year and the next; but finally he was compelled to pay up the last dollar of his arrears with costs and interest, including the tax of 1863, which the Herald intimates was wholly illegal. The city never refunded any illegally collected taxes to Holmes, for he never paid an illegal tax,—nor indeed a legal one till he was compelled to do it.

The Copperheads take great credit to themselves for reducing taxes in the city after the old debts which they left are paid off and when all improvements are finished which at present are necessary. This is paralleled by nothing except the discovery which the Copperheads have made to the effect that the administration of the General Government cost more while the great rebellion was raging than it did during the preceding years of profound peace and unbroken prosperity.

Be not deceived by the cry of "no politics," "citizens' ticket," etc. The so-called "citizens' ticket is a Democratic ticket, and if it succeeds, the result will be hailed as a Democratic victory.

Convicted of Intentional Falsehood.

In its issues of Saturday and Sunday the Herald asserts that Mr. Lowensdale proposed a tax of ten mills on the dollar for the support of city government the present year, and that Mr. Holmes recommended a tax of four and a half mills. This, so far as Mr. Lowensdale is concerned, is deliberate, intentional falsehood. He made no such proposition nor anything like it, as the Herald and its candidate for Mayor both well know. Those who made that statement lied deliberately and consciously. It was not Mr. Lowensdale who proposed a tax of ten mills, but the "retrenchers," Zeiber and Fechheimer. Here are the facts:

On the 27th of December last Councilman Zeiber, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means (the Committee consisted of Zeiber, Fechheimer and Carter), introduced an ordinance to levy taxes for the year 1867, fixing the rate at ten mills on the dollar, which was read first and second times and laid over till next meeting.

At the next meeting (the same at which the "reform" message of His Honor, Mayor Holmes, was delivered), the ordinance was again called up, and on motion was referred to the somewhat noted "reform" Special Committee appointed to take charge of the aforesaid message with the various reform measures introduced therein. Of this Committee Mr. Hallock was, of course, appointed Chairman, and Mr. Zeiber was made one of his associates.

The matter was not again heard of till some two weeks after, when an ordinance was introduced by the said Committee, by which it was proposed to levy a tax of four and a half mills for municipal purposes only, not providing for the payment of the interest soon to become due on the bonds issued by the city for the improvement of the Willamette river. A motion was made by Mr. Lowensdale to amend by adding one mill to provide for this interest and for certain outstanding warrants against the river fund; and further, to reduce the levy of four and a half mills to four mills, and add a section levying one mill for the interest and warrants above mentioned. The motion was opposed by Mr. Hallick, not with any argument, however,—but leaving the impression on the minds of those who were bored with his demagoging harangue that he desired to so manage affairs that the city would fail to meet the interest on the bonds, etc., all of which he hoped to use in some way or other against his opponents in the Council.

These are the facts in the case. A tax of ten mills never was proposed by Mr. Lowensdale. That proposition came from the "retrenchers," though it was never finally acted upon. In order to prove conclusively the shameless mendacity of the Herald and its backers, Holmes, Hallock & Co., we demanded from the City Auditor a certified copy from the records of all the proceedings in relation to the tax from the time of the introduction of the ordinance until the rate was finally fixed. The proceedings follow:

STATE OF OREGON, } ss.
CITY OF PORTLAND. }

Be it remembered, that at a meeting of the Common Council of the city of Portland, held February 8th, 1867, the following among other proceedings were had, to-wit:

"An ordinance reported by the Select Committee on the Mayor's message, entitled 'An ordinance levying sundry taxes for the year 1867,' was read a first time and a second time by title."

And at a meeting of said Common Council, held February 15, 1867:

"An ordinance levying sundry taxes for the year 1867, was read a third time. Councilman Lowensdale moved to amend by adding 'that a tax of one mill on the dollar be levied for the purpose of paying interest on city bonds and outstanding indebtedness on river fund,' pending which motion the further consideration of the ordinance was postponed until the next regular meeting of the Board."

At a meeting of said Common Council, held February 22, 1867:

"An ordinance entitled 'an ordinance levying sundry taxes for the year 1867,' having been read a third time, Councilman Lowensdale moved to amend the same by striking out the words and figures 'one-half (½)' in sec. 1, and add sec. 2, as follows: Sec. 2. A special tax of one mill on the dollar of all property subject to taxation is hereby levied for the purpose of improving the navigation of the Willamette river,' which said amendments were adopted; whereupon Councilman Hallock moved to amend by striking out the word 'four,' in sec. 1, and insert the word 'three and one-half,' which motion was lost by yeas, Messrs. Carter, Hallock and Zeiber—3; nays, Carson, Lowensdale, O'Connor and Rosenheim—4, and the ordinance being placed upon its final passage, was passed by yeas, Carter, Carson, Lowensdale, O'Connor and Rosenheim—5; nays, Hallock and Zeiber—2."

And at a certain other meeting of the said Common Council, held March 8, 1867:

"After the reading of the foregoing message, (a message from the Mayor returning the herein before mentioned ordinance without his approval,) the ordinance as required by the city charter was again placed upon its final passage and lost by yeas, Carson, Lowensdale, McCraken and O'Connor—4; nays, Fechheimer, Hallock and Zeiber—3."

And at the same meeting:

"An ordinance levying taxes for the year 1867 was read a first time and a second time by title, and on motion the rules were suspended and the ordinance read a third time and placed upon its final passage and passed by yeas, Fechheimer, Hallock, Lowensdale, McCraken, O'Connor, Rosenheim and Zeiber—7; nays, none."

I certify the foregoing to be true and correct transcript from the records of the proceedings of the Common Council of the city of Portland, as appears by the original record now in my office.

Witness my hand at Portland, this 15th day of June, 1867. W. S. CALDWELL, Auditor and Clerk.

What now becomes of the statement so often repeated by the Herald to the effect that Mr. Lowensdale insisted on a tax of ten mills on the dollar for the present year? The statement is an invention of the Herald and its clique. They have no facts to present in their defense, and their object is to carry the election by wholesale lying.

Proof of the Debt.

Holmes, Hallock & Co., through their organ, deny that the city was left in debt in 1864 when their clique was kicked out of office by the people of Portland. Voters of Portland, read the following extract from the message of Mayor Failing (June 29th, 1865) and see whether the assumption of the clique's organ is true:

At the commencement of my term of office in April of last year, it was found impossible to make any report of the financial condition of the city. No account had been kept of money appropriated to meet contracts made by the Council, or of appropriations made for any special purpose. Since that time there has been paid on claims arising on contracts and appropriations made by former Council and on old city warrants, $13,073 08.

What other proof is wanted of the statement we have so often made, that the Holmes, Hallock and Dodge clique left the city deeply in debt in 1864?

Qualifications of Voters.

The following classes of persons are entitled by law to vote in the city election:

All white male citizens of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in the State for six months, three months in the city and ten days in the ward where they offer to vote.

Persons of foreign birth are required, in addition to the above qualifications, to have declared their intention to become citizens at least one year before this election.

The Herald of Sunday morning speaks of Rosenheim and Fechheimer as "our Republican allies." Last Monday morning it said: "The friends of Fechheimer were ruled out (of the Ward meeting) because they were only members of the Union party and had not yet affiliated with the Republican-Union party." Query: When did Fechheimer become a "Republican?" When his name was placed on the Democratic ticket? The "organ" may meditate on this matter and answer at its leisure.

The Democratic "retrenchers" deny that they left the city in debt when they went out of office in 1864. To see if this is true, read the following extract from Mayor Failing's message of June, 1866:

The taxation for general purposes, levied in 1864 and 1865, amounted to nineteen mills on the dollar. Assuming that there will be no deficiency at the close of the year, the amount levied will have defrayed the expenses of the city, (exclusive of river improvement) from April 15th, 1864, to December 31st, 1866, a period of two years and nine months, besides paying indebtedness contracted prior to April 15th, 1864, and judgment of John B. Garrison, amounting to $10,038 53.

The National Grand Lodge of Good Templars has been in session at Detroit. A resolution was adopted recommending the formation of county leagues, pledged to vote for none but temperance men, and all persons in the county of Multnomah and in the State of Oregon to buy their Clothing, Dry Goods and everything in that line, at KOHN & FISHEL'S, No. 91 Front street, who have the best stock in the city of Portland, and sell it at most extreme low prices.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—D. S. Childs was arrested last night by Detective Fuller and the under Sheriff of Austin, on a requisition from Gov. Blaisdell of Nevada, charging him with an attempt at murder and highway robbery, and he will be taken back for trial. Childs is said to have been the party who hired the other men to ride Canfield, agent of the Belmont mine, on a rail, out of which the trouble grew which led to the killing of Lewis Budrow and Patrick Dignon, at Belmont, Nevada, some months since.

Attachment suits were commenced yesterday afternoon against A. and L. Claybargh, clothing dealers, on Sacramento street, as follows: Twelfth District Court, by D. W. Rosenstock, for $15,635 75; Julius Platshek & Co., for $1,230; L. Livingston & Co., $2,030 31; M. Esberg, $3,000; J. A. Donohoe, $2,000; J. W. Hecht, $9,800; J. F. Schafer, $780 25; John Schoenfield & Co., $600.

The dead body of a man found in a boat near Fort Point, has been identified as that of Francis Charalizion, aged 62 years, a Frenchman.

A petition is in circulation calling for a meeting on next Monday evening at the Twelfth District Court room, of those willing to co-operate in a movement to organize a National Republican party.

Daniel Taylor was taken to Stockton last evening. Taylor was formerly a captain in the volunteer service, but was stricken with palsy in Arizona, and has never been in his right mind since.

A meeting of the veterans of the Mexican war was held last evening in the Twelfth District Court room, Gen. Halleck presiding, when it was voted to participate in the celebration of the coming Fourth of July. An invitation was extended to all members of the army and navy who participated in the Mexican war to join them.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 137½; legal tenders are quoted at 73½ buying and 73¾ selling.

The Subsistence Department of the Pacific accepted today the following tenders for army purposes; 155,000 pounds extra family flour, to be delivered at Chico, Cal., at $2 60 per 100 lbs; 225,000 do. do., deliverable at Red Bluff, Cal., $2 90 per 100,000 lbs. The flour is of country make, put up in new sacks of 100 lbs each, packed in gunnies furnished by the department, and subject to inspection at the point of destination.

The demand for exchange and bullion for the steamer on Tuesday, has barely commenced. The rates to-day are as follows: Coin drafts on Atlantic cities, 2 and 2½ per cent.; currency drafts on Atlantic cities, 32 per cent. premium on gold. Telegraphic transfers, 2¾ per cent. Exchange is firm at 48⅝d for 60 days bankers' bills on London and 5f for 30 days bills on Paris. Gold bars are in good demand at 900, and silver bars at 1 and 2 per cent premium, according to quantity and fineness.

The Markets.

Flour—The market is still dull and the prices are quiet. City brands superfine half sks, per 100 lbs, $5 25 @5 50; extra hlf sks, $6 25@6 50; qr sks $6 50@6 75.

Wheat—$1 70 per 100 lbs.

Barley—Good brewing, 92½c; choice do., 95c per 100 lbs.

Potatoes—Petaluma; old, $1 40. We quote good to choice, old, at $1 70@1 75. Humboldt, new, sell all the way from $1 to $2 per 100 lbs.

Shipping.

Arrived—June 14th, ship Hope, 177 days from Philadelphia.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, V. I., June 15.—The case of Pidwell vs. the Hudson's Bay Company, to recover damages for the loss of baggage on the steamship Labourchere, in April, 1863, terminated last night, after a hearing of four days. The jury was not able to agree, though strongly charged by the Chief Justice to return a verdict for Pidwell. Had the plaintiff been successful in this important case, the Hudson's Bay Company would have been liable for all losses sustained by passengers and shippers on the Labouchere. It would also have nullified the insurance on the vessel.

...Coal.—Some time ago, we mentioned the discovery by Mr. Terwilliger, of extensive coal mines on the Nehalem river which empties into the ocean above Tillamook. Some of the coal was sent to San Francisco for the purpose of being tested, and the following is the result as communicated by Messrs Knapp & Grant:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27, 1867.

James Terwilliger, Esq—Dear Sir: We hand you report of assayers on coal sample. They call this the best sample of lignite coal yet discovered on this coast, and if you have plenty like it and convenient to water you are all right. We have had a good deal of conversation with the assayer who is a very intelligent man, on the coal question, and he says that as a fuel for household purposes it is far ahead of any coal in the market. It is also good for steamer use, for river and coast use; but not so good as Sydney coal for sea-going steamers on long voyages. We have never seen a more favorable time for the introduction of a new coal in this city, as there is a real dearth of good fuel coal. A responsible party or two have offered to take a cargo of from 200 to 300 tons, at from $10 00 to $12 00 per ton, if equal to the sample sent. If the coal were here now we could easily get at least $11 50 for it and perhaps $12 00. One thing we know: it would soon be the leading coal here for fuel and then the only trouble would be to get it out fast enough. We hope you will put us in possession of the facts in relation to the mine, its nearness to water, etc., and if we can be of any use to you, you can command us. There will be a wholesome amount of competition among the coal dealers here when your first cargo arrives, as we have exhibited the sample to all the leading ones and have got up a good degree of interest about it. Whatever we continue to learn from time to time, we will write. Very truly yours,
KNAPP & GRANT.

The following is the report of the assayer mentioned in the letter above:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29th, 1864.

Gentlemen —We have examined the sample of coal which you submitted to us, for water, sulphur, ash and ... and find that it contains the following per cent:
Water, per cent 9.87
Sulphur 3.73
Ash 10.60
... . 50.00
We consider this a fair quality of lignite coal.
Respectfully yours,
JOHN HEWSTON, Jr.,
Knapp and Grant. Chemist and Supt .D.

...Items.—The Register of last Saturday, has the following items: After falling about eighteen inches, the river is slightly on the rise again......Another detachment of 80 recruits arrived here on the last steamer from ...isco, who will be assigned to service in the 8th U. S. Cavalry.....The two meat markets in Vancouver sell on average for home consumption over 6,000 lbs. of beef, 1,500 lbs. of mutton, and about 500 lbs. of fresh pork each and every week......The Collecting Committee appointed a few months ago at a public meeting of Ireland's ...thizers, held at Vancouver, sent last week by Wells, Fargo & Co., the sum of $375 68 coin and $378 in ... to Anthony A. Griffin, Esq., New York City, one of the officials of the Fenian Brotherhood, and duly appointed to receive the funds. These sums were raised by the Committee from the resident Irishmen and friends of Ireland in this neighborhood ....The citizens of Vancouver have resolved to appropriately observe and celebrate the coming anniversary of our National Independence. A Committee of Arrangements has been appointed who are determined to do their duty. We are not enabled to publish a programme this week, but we may say that there will be a grand procession, composed of the military, the fire department, and other civic societies, a car of liberty, etc., an oration by some distinguished gentleman, reading the Declaration of Independence, music, and other exercises, firing of salutes, etc. It has been ...mined that no public dinner shall be given at this time, it having been the cause of some dissatisfaction on former similar occasions. But the Public Square, which is now covered with beautiful shade trees, will be suitably prepared to accommodate parties from the country, who may bring their own refreshments, and enjoy them there in pic-nic style. The following gentlemen have been chosen as officers of the day: Col. Hodges, President, Capt. James Turnbull and J. M. Fletcher Vice Presidents. Capt. L. S. Babbitt will officiate as Chief Marshal.

Military.—The Owyhee Avalanche, of June 8th, says: the following officers have been recently promoted to the rank named and ordered to report to points, to-wit: First Cavalry—Captain Thomas McGregor, Fort Klamath, Oregon, First Lieutenant, Daniel M. Walcott, Co. F, Fort Boise, Idaho, First Lieutenant, Wm. R. Parnell, Co. H., Camp C. F. Smith, Oregon. Twenty-third Infantry: First Lieutenant, John R. Eschenburg, Co. D, Camp Warner, Oregon; First Lieutenant, Louis R. Stille, Co. E, Camp Three Forks Owyhee, Idaho, and First Lieutenant, Joseph L. Jack, Camp Warner, Oregon.

The same paper, speaking of the assignment of troops at Clarke creek, Mormon Basin, by request of Gov. Woods, says: "It were time something was done for that section. The canyons of Burnt river afford the best hiding places for Indians of any in the upper country, and the Umatilla road is particularly dangerous thereaways. The military will finally get in position."

The Mountaineer, of the 15th, says: From Mr. Comer, of Camp Watson, we learn that a scout of fifteen men started on a two days' scout from there on Wednesday, after a party of Indians seen yesterday, a few miles from here. Col. Baker, in a few days, starts on a big scout of a month or six weeks.

...Made for California.—It will strike most people with a strangely new sensation to learn that Oregon is ...ing machinery of any kind for California; yet such is the fact—and of Oregon invention, too. The Ajax will take, to-morrow, one of the Davis Header and Threshers, built at the Oregon Iron Works, to San Francisco, to be ...ped from there to Suisun City, for Mr. Daniel McCreary. Mr. McCreary was here in February last, when the Davis machine was on exhibition in this city, and liking it, he ordered one for his own use. He is a practical ...t himself, and it was partly on his judgment that parties here entered upon a contract for the building of several of the machines. The one now finished is splendid ...ing piece of workmanship and will probably do ...ing in the way of convincing the Californians that something good can come even out of Oregon. The Iron Works will put up five or six more of them in time to be used in our State harvest.

Lively and Business-Like.—Last Saturday was the most remarkable day of the season, so far as produce ...ts are concerned. The Ajax being ready to take in freight, the shippers called into requisition nearly every dray and truck in the city, for transportation of flour from the various warehouses. At any time during the afternoon a procession might be seen, reaching from the P. T. Co.'s warehouse on A street, thence down North Front to C, thence along C to Couch & Flanders' wharf and thence to the upper end of the wharf, where the flour was unloaded into the steamer. It required about an hour and a half for a dray to reach the steamer from A street—the drays hauling two tons each and the trucks four tons each. The proceeding looked more like business than anything seen here, in that line, since 1862. The drays and trucks will resume their places in the procession again this morning, in the same order as on Saturday.

Exemption of Firemen from Certain Duties.—There has been some difficulty on the part of certain people, in understanding exactly what the law is in relation to the exemption of firemen from serving on juries, payment of poll taxes, etc. The law is not published in the code of 1864, but it nevertheless remains in force, having been enacted January 16, 1855, and never repealed. Section 3 of "An Act to exempt officers and members of the Fire Department, from certain duties therein named," provides: That so long as any person shall continue a certified officer or member of said Fire Department under the regulations prescribed by said City Council, such person shall be exempt from military duty, and from service on juries, and from any poll tax."

Pic-Nics.—The Turn-Verein and a number of their invited guests went on a pic-nic excursion, yesterday, to Prewitt Grove—the grounds on which the former pic-nic was held. They left on the Couch at ten o'clock A. M., and returned just after six P. M., having enjoyed, as we learn, a very pleasant day.

Joe Webber's pic-nic at East Portland Park, was attended by a large number of people during the day, who spent their time in the various amusements offered, or in ...ing about the park.

Portland Library.—The Portland Library has received the following new books in addition to the list furnished last week, Physiology of Marriage, by Alcott; Comparative Physiognomy or Resemblance between Men and Animals, by Redfield; New America, by Dixon; Geological Sketches, by Agassiz; Tales from Shakspeare; Bow House, Red Letter Days; American Agitators and ... by Bartlett; Agnes of Sorrento, by Mrs. Stowe; Elements of International Law, by Halleck; Letters of Eugenie DeGuerin, Across the Continent, Bowles.

Base Ball Match.—The Clackamas boys will be down this morning to play a match game of base ball with the Pioneers. Unfortunately several of the Pioneers' best players are sick, but members of the second nine will be substituted, and a lively game may be expected. We are not advised as to the hour of commencing the game, but suppose it will open at about one or two o'clock.

Fire Again.—The unoccupied house on Third street, between Yamhill and Taylor, which was twice set on fire last Wednesday morning, was fired again on Saturday morning. Mr Thomas, the Oregonian carrier for that district, discovered and extinguished the fire before it had made much headway.

A Skirmish.—A couple of men on First street Saturday evening, getting unduly warm in a political discussion, wound up the controversy with a blow or two, out of which grew a charge of assault and battery which will be inquired into this morning, in the police court.

Public Rejoicings.—Mr Oates, who came down Saturday evening from the Upper Columbia, says the people of Wallula had a grand ball on Thursday evening in honor of the election of Mr Flanders, and that another is to come off, early this week, at Walla Walla.

...Sale of Books.—A. Roman & Co. have a lot of books on hand yet, which will be closed out this evening, at auction. There will be an opportunity to buy cheap. The store fixtures are also for sale.

...'s Court.—On Saturday John Williams was up on a charge of disorderly conduct at the Idaho Saloon, to which he plead guilty and was fined $5, and costs.

Willamette Freights.—Arrived per steamer Senator from Oregon City, on Saturday, June 15th: 81 bales wool, 5,995 qr sks flour, 1 case mdse, 6 bags wheat, 2 horses, 1 bale woolen goods

Identified.—The body mentioned the other day as having been found floating in the Columbia river, near St. Helens, has been identified as that of the man lost overboard from the Okanagan.

Democratic Nominations.—The Democracy of the Third Ward, Friday evening nominated for Councilmen, Wm. Church, Noah Lambert and W. D Carter

A Riot in the Prices of Clothing.—Barman Bros are the defenders of those who wish good and cheap clothing. Here are our prices, and no backing down: Cassimere Suits, $18 50; Undershirts and Drawers, A 1 quality, $1 each; White Shirts, and no trash, $1 50. We will prove to you as a fact that we are selling goods at Panic Prices, by calling on us at the corner of Front and Morrison Sts.
P. S.—We will not run after you in the streets to sell you our goods. We never were on Chatham street, New York, to learn that peculiar style of doing business.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by the Druggists and dealers everywhere. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER, after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy in case of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Sting of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epileptic fits ensue.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

LETTER FROM OUR YAQUINA BAY CORRESPONDENT.

FROM YAQUINA BAY TO CORVALLIS

CORVALLIS, June 13, 1867.

We left Newport at 1 o clock P M , and in two and a half hours had reached Yaquina City, (but I'd leave off the city). This flourishing little village is situated at the confluence of the Elk and Yaquina rivers It was laid out about the first of last year, and now contains two hotels, a store, saloon blacksmith shop, shoe shop, livery stable and a school, besides a number of residences This is the western terminus of the Yaquina Road Company's wagon road. The town has quite a thrifty appearance, and her people are sanguine that she has a future

The Company have their road nearly completed when it will be inspected by the Governor, and if accepted by him, they will be entitled to three sections of land to every mile of road—a donation by Government The road is so good that hacks and carriages drive through from Corvallis to Yaquina in twelve hours. This Company should have the credit of having built one of the best roads in the State The road follows up the Yaquina, and passes through a low gap in the mountains, and keeps down the north fork of Mary's river. This is probably the lowest gap in the coast range It passes through Blodgot's valley—a charming little spot—and just misses the south end of King's valley. The scenery in many places is very fine, and travelers need not want for accommodations, as there are four or five inns along the road.

We drove by the Philomath College, seven miles from Corvallis This is a fine looking, substantial two-story brick, though not large. Quite a little village is growing up around this institution.

ARMIES OF WORMS.

I must not omit to notice the two or three armies of gray worms that we passed through while coming up the Yaquina river. They are about an inch and a half in length, and somewhat resemble the "thousand legged worm" There were three armies of them, each from one third of a mile to a mile in extent. Their number was countless. In many places the ground was almost covered. They were all in motion, and all going the same way. They must be going somewhere, and to go seems to be their only occupation. If they eat, they do not feed upon vegetation, for I could not see a single leaf or blade of grass that had been touched by them. Where they came from, where they are going, and what they are going for, is alike mysterious.

CORVALLIS

Still quietly sleeps in the shade of her long lines of locusts and maples, and while the broad leaves of the latter fan cool breezes through her dusty streets, the sweet perfume of the locust blooms overwhelms the putrid breath of her whiskey shops.

Some little improvement has been done on the streets in the way of plowing, throwing up, and opening gutters, and making new crossings, and I saw a few feet of side-walk; much of which is needed. The side-walk, in many places, is so dilapidated that it is an impediment, rather than an advantage to pedestrians.

I hear a general complaint among business men of "hard times," scarcity of money and small sales.

THE PIXLEY CONCERT.

Last evening I went to Music Hall to see the Pixley Sisters perform, and was much surprised to see that many of the gentlemen wore their hats in the room. I was unable to decide whether it was the fashion in Corvallis for gentlemen to wear their hats at Concerts, and other public entertainments, or whether they were so extremely polite that they retained their hats because the ladies wore their bonnets. Be that as it may, I had to see the Pixley Sisters through a cloud of hats. It was equally hard to determine whether the Pixley's on the stage, or those brilliant fellows in the audience, were the most entertaining. Many of the latter during the whole performance, in loud and grating tones gave utterance to many of the most sparkling witticisms, such as "You bet," "bully for you," "hit 'em again," "bring him out," etc., etc. These gentlemen (?) made themselves far more conspicuous, and I doubt not if they had a half a chance they could beat the Pixley's all hollow. Suicide of a Congressman.

[Russellville, Ky., Correspondence (May 9th) of the Louisville Courier.]

A deep gloom has settled over our community. Yesterday afternoon Hon. Elijah Hise committed suicide by shooting himself through the brain. I suppose he did not live an instant after the discharge of the pistols. I say pistols because he used two. The details are sickening, but in order to give you an account in full, and to stop at once any garbled statements that may be made, I will give you all the horrible particulars, so that in noticing his death you can present the facts. Since his return from Washington he has been melancholy, so much so as to excite remark, even from his acquaintances. On yesterday he left my office, after a short conversation, and went immediately home, not distant more than a hundred yards. In half an hour the report reached me that he had shot himself. I hurried down, and found the report too true. He had lashed a couple of eight-inch rifled pistols together, and, standing before a large sized mirror, had discharged both through his brain, immediately over the eyebrows. The whole top of his head was blown completely off. Upon a small table immediately in front of him was found the enclosed manuscript, a minute copy of which I send. From this it appears that the condition of the country bore to such an extent upon his mind as to render death preferable. He has also for some months been suffering under diabetes mellitus, which contributed in a great degree, no doubt, to his despondency. He was sixty-five years of age July 4, 1864. You will perceive from the date of this article that he has contemplated the act for some weeks.

A COPY OF THE NOTE IN JUDGE HISE'S HANDWRITING FOUND ON HIS TABLE.

"I have lost all hope of being able to aid in saving the country from the impending disasters and ruin in which despotic and unconstitutional rule has involved her. I have been brought into the public service at an age too advanced, and at a period too late, to allow me even to hope that I can do anything in aid of the restoration of constitutional government, even if admitted to a seat in Congress, which, it is said will be refused.

I am enfeebled by the infirmities of age and by disease. I am weary of the world and intend to leave it. I am sick at heart and resort to death for relief. I shall leave a poor afflicted wife and kind relatives and friends, none of whom have any knowledge of my purpose. I have kept my intent to seek death for relief from the sorrows that afflict me, a secret from all. I do not think even a suspicion of it exists in the minds of either wife, kindred or friends ELIJAH HISE.

A REMARKABLE WOMAN IN PARIS.—The Paris Patrie is responsible for the following account of a young lady who is exciting a great deal of public curiosity in Paris:

She is from five to six-and-twenty. Her complexion is of a warm golden tint, like Florentine bronze She is never clad but in a black dress, made high, ending at the neck in a row of large coral beads of a blood-red, and at her wrists with bracelets of the same material and hue. From beneath her cap, a sort of beret or Scotch bonnet—black also, and encircled with a row of coral beads—flow long and thick tresses, so black that they are blue. She is never seen on foot. Her "Victoria" is drawn by a pair of ponies black as ebony, at a pace which makes the pavement smoke again. The black and red of her costume and equipage, added to her bronzed complexion, invest her with a sinister and somewhat diabolical air. She is known only by the designation of "La Dame au Coral." Those who have been curious enough to investigate something of her history and habits of life, report that she is immensely rich, travels with six servants—two Indian women and four men, one of whom is a negro, the others being of the same bronzed complexion as their mistress, that she spends much of her time playing on a species of guzla, or practicing with a pistol at a target, which target represents a female figure of blonde complexion, about the size of the largest dolls, lastly, that she is from Java, and lives exclusively on fruits and preserves. She is said to have blown out the brains of one of her slaves who entered her apartment unsummoned But the most remarkable circumstance about her is that day and night the shutters are closed, and her apartment illuminated with candelabras. At night she sings plaintive melodies more like wailings than set tunes, and she smokes opium and sleeps on panther skins She is said to be the widow of a great personage in the island of Sumatra, who had committed suicide after an outburst of jealousy on her part, caused by his suspected attachment to the wife of an English naval officer"

"Little" Cordelia Howard, the original of Little Eva in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin," a part played by her upwards of 1,500 times, is preparing to reappear upon the stage in a leading character.

The Massachusetts Liquor Law.

A Boston correspondent writes Persons outside of Massachusetts no doubt think it very strange that the wholesale dealers in liquor are allowed to pursue their business by the constabulary, while the retailers are visited with summary punishment And many of our own citizens share in the same ignorance The law forbids the seizure of liquors held by importers in unbroken packages The State Constable, however, thinks he has discovered a new feature in the law, and now claims, and cites good authority to prove it, that he has the right to seize liquors which have passed from the hands of importers into the possession of other parties, though the original packages remain unbroken The true explanation why heavy dealers are left unscathed, is that when the Deputy State Constables stationed in Taunton made a large seizure there—which occurred some months since—and seized $10,000 worth during a single raid—they experienced a good deal of trouble in holding it It appears that the owners had a United States license, and on consulting the United States authorities after the seizure had been made, the constables found that in order to hold their $10,000 worth of liquors they must furnish $20,000 bonds, or just twice the value of the liquors Of course they were surprised and nonplussed at this new wrinkle Proceeding to headquarters in this city for instructions, an effort was made to find some true friend of prohibition who could command a sufficient quantity of greenbacks to furnish the bonds. One individual of wealth, a strong temperance man—declined risking $20,000 in such a speculation, another rendered a similar excuse, a third "could not see it," a fourth would not, and so on. and the indications were that the owner would speedily recover his stock, as only twenty-four hours were allowed for raising of the required bonds At last, driven to the wall, they resorted to the "patching up" process, and by obtaining $1,000 here, another $1,000 there, etc., they succeeded in bringing their seizure to a successful termination But this first effort was the straw that broke the camel's back, and hence it was that the heavy dealers are let alone During the past week but few seizures were made. There is a mysterious holding up in constabulary operations. It is reported that the authorities are awaiting the decision of the Supreme Court at Washington in the matter of the Massachusetts liquor cases. Should the decision be made that a United States license protects the dealer, our State will have an immense bill to pay for destroyed liquors, and over twenty-five hundred suits will be thrown out of the local Courts.

A BIBULOUS INUENDO —Some years ago, when the total abstinence excitement was at its hight, and the Maine Liquor Law was the great social question of the day, I called, with Geo. Kendall, of the New Orleans Picayune, at the office of the Brothers Harper, then in Cliff street. George was running his new book on Mexico through their press at the time, and having been acquainted with the Brothers for many years previously was of course on the most intimate terms with all of them.

James, the Mayor, was at that time a leading apostle in the temperance cause, and used occasionally to rally George upon what he thought to be evidence of an undue bibulous propensity. "Your face looks rather reddish this morning, George; I'm afraid you indulge." Which Kendall certainly did, but always in moderation—never to anything like excess.

After sitting a few moments, George said to the youngest brother, Fletcher:

"Fletcher, where's Jim? Where's the Mayor? I want to see him."

"He's in the library room," replied Fletcher, "entertaining a committee of old women from the Martha Washington Temperance Society. They hold a meeting in the Tabernacle to-morrow night, and the Mayor is going to preside."

"Good," said George; "I'll go right in and see him. Come, Clark," added Kendall, "let us see how the city's Chief Magistrate looks in council."

George rapped at the door.

"Come in," answered the Mayor.

Kendall opened the door slowly, as if in hesitation, glanced askance at the eight or ten old women, winked knowingly at the Mayor, and then said, with an inimitable maudlin Jimmy Twitcher air,

"J-i-m, let's go out and take another drink!"

It is not often that any one can fluster James Harper; but "you believe" he was flustered on this occasion. He looked horror-stricken at the very idea, as he returned the astonished gaze of the old ladies. "Another drink!" as if they had had one together, early as it was in the morning.

Last summer I saw George on his return from Paris. We reminiscized upon this incident, and Kendall said.

"I have never heard anything from Jim from that day to this about my indulging."—Louis Gaylord Clark.

GEORGE SANDERS.—George Sanders, says the New York Times, is said to be living in Paris, doing nothing with his wonted vigor and devotion. George is very well known to our citizens. Before the rebellion few figures were more familiar in political and miscellaneous circles than his. Whenever a good dinner was to come off George was usually on hand—and in default of invitations he was very apt to give a dinner himself. Without any commanding influence on public affairs, he always had the "inside track" with the Democratic leaders in power, and reaped large pecuniary profits from the intimacy. He was always largely employed in jobs with the heads of the Departments at Washington, who willingly forwarded schemes of which he shared the profits. He was kind hearted, companionable, an utter stranger to modesty and self distrust, and ready to take a hand, asked or unasked, in any scheme, public or private, political or pecuniary, that might be going. Devoted to Douglas, he opposed secession, but went South when the war broke out, and undertook the trifling job of procuring by contract a navy for the rebel Confederacy—in which, so far as appears, he was not very successful. He was one of the busiest and most blustering attaches of the rebel Government, though no one knows precisely what he ever accomplished. He ran the blockade several times, spent a good deal of time in Europe, and finally turned up with Bev Tucker, Jacob Thompson and sundry other Confederate worthies in Canada. As a matter of course he was conspicuous in the famous Greeley-Jewett Niagara Falls confabulations, but did not contribute materially, so far as we are aware, to the notorious failure which befel them. He spent a good deal of his time, and all the money he could comfortably command, about the hotels of Montreal—talking all sorts of Confederate nonsense, and naturally being among the first to fall under suspicion of having been concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln. The perjured scoundrel Conover, who has just been righteously sent to the penitentiary for his false testimony on the subject, pitched upon him as one of his victims, and the fact that Sanders always gloried in proclaiming himself a Red Republican of the bloodiest and Italian type, made the accusation seem all the more plausible. George must need reconstruction badly by this time. If it should ever be tendered him in the shape of brandy and water, it will not be scorned.

A ROMANTIC AFFAIR —Quite an excitement was occasioned in fashionable circles in this city a few days ago by an affair which called for the interference of the police detectives and a minister of the Gospel before its culmination. A wealthy gentleman of Cincinnati last week left that city resolved upon engaging in business in the metropolis, and before doing so had occasion to visit a certain family with whom he had been a period of time on terms of friendly intimacy In this family was an interesting young lady, for whom he had evinced an attachment of a more tender character than that of mere friendship, and who, happily for his fortunate self, returned his affection with all the feeling of a youthful heart. On hearing of the departure for this city of the one she held so dear, after in vain attempting to make him desist from his intended journey, she formed the resolution of accompanying him unknown to her parents. The gentleman endeavored to induce her to abandon her wild idea, as he termed it, but she would listen to no appeal and made all the preparations necessary to leave her home clandestinely with him, after having made him promise that he would not reveal her project to any member of her family The pair arrived safely in this city and put up at the Metropolitan Hotel, the gentleman treating the young lady with all the respect due a sister by a brother, engaging separate apartments for her exclusive occupation. They had not been town over two days before a dispatch was received from her father by the authorities at police headquarters, requesting that the gentleman who had "eloped" with his daughter should be arrested Under instructions of the chief, detective Elder arrested the gentleman at the hotel, and he was held in custody at the Central office until the arrival of the young lady's father. The old gentleman was very naturally in a state of great perturbation, but on learning how matters stood and that there really was no such thing as a criminal elopement, he appeared to be somewhat relieved from his fearful apprehensions, and to satisfy his daughter and the man for whom she had abandoned home and family, preparations were made for the marriage of the pair. All parties to the transaction were thus rendered happy. The wedding was celebrated in due form at the residence of Captain John Young —New York Herald May 11th.

A Triple Murder—Vengeance of a Depraved Woman.

An event has just transpired in Memphis which has caused an excitement unparalleled. The chief actor in this seeming unreal drama, which has in it a touch of the barbaric age, says a local paper, was a young man name Robert Ferguson, a late graduate of the Medical University of Philadelphia, and he bore a reputation for mildness and good behavior, and who was fast becoming recognized among his profession as a youth of great promise. The tale which seems unreal is briefly as follows

After Ferguson's return from Philadelphia, where he had prosecuted his studies in medicine with great diligence, and graduated with first honors he became connected in business with one of our popular physicians, and was to all appearances, advancing along the road to professional renown with rapid strides But it seems that good fortune did not benefit him He became reckless, and finally it was rumored among his many friends that he had become enamored with a young lady of great beauty, but depraved habits, and had neglected his business so that he could enjoy her charms She had other suitors, among them a young man who was considered a warm friend to Ferguson. Their meetings were clandestine, but ere long Ferguson became aware of the false actions of the courtesan whom he loved

A coldness ensued between him and his false friend. One night they met in a drinking saloon, where desperate characters of every description assembled nightly, and debauch until the gray morning drives them forth to their pursuits of crime and degradation. The meeting resulted fatally to the false friend Ferguson shot him and was immediately arrested, but through some peculiar modus operandi he was released on bonds. After his release he went to Nashville, but a love for the beautiful courtesan and a desire to again mingle in the scenes that had fascinated and dragged him from a position of honor and trust, caused him to return to Memphis. Fatal action! The spirits of vengeance were abroad The woman who by her beautiful person and educated wiles had caused him to forget his duty to society and his profession, were gathering the meshes of death around him She had loved the man whom Ferguson had so ruthlessly shot down, and the sight of his dead body had aroused to her pitiless heart all the passions of desperation and revenge.

Slowly she wound the coil, and as she caressed her victim her eyes would seem to read his very heart. In her desire to fully mature her plans, she seemingly descended lower into the pool of degradation, and as surely dragged with her the infatuated object of her hate From a sumptuously furnished house of prostitution, called "Madame Lovejoy's," she became an inmate of the Olympic Theater, on Second street, in the capacity of beer girl, and from thence to a low den on Washington street, "The Cotton Plant." There she cultivated the acquaintance of men noted for their desperation and villainy. But in her train she brought many youths of good family, whom, by good address and assiduous attention, she had ready to do her bidding. Ferguson saw that he was in danger from his many rivals, and insisted that they leave for California. She made some trivial excuse, remarking, "You will go a longer journey next week."

She spoke truly, but little did she know that her coils were not only enveloping her intended victim, but herself. On the night of the 28th she concluded to put in operation her darling but fiendish object. Her accomplices—men of depraved natures—Hammond, Yonker and Bowles were instructed as to the time when Ferguson was to be assassinated. The courtesan made the appointment with Ferguson.

True to his word he came. As he entered the saloon where he was in the habit of drinking wines, etc., Yonker entered and was introduced by the woman. He ordered a bottle of wine As Ferguson was lifting a glass of the sparkling beverage to his lips, the courtesan with the glitter of the snake in her eye, raised her glass, remarking, "Ferguson, this is the signal of your death," and as she drained her glass, Yonker, with a gleaming bowie knife, made a lunge at the breast of Ferguson

His situation flashed across his mind, as the cold, sharp steel penetrated his left shoulder. With a quick bound he placed himself in a corner of the room, and drawing a navy-sized pistol, he shot Yonker dead just as the would-be assassin attempted to fire at him with a Deringer pistol. The courtesan foiled in her attempt, fired at Ferguson, who fell covered with blood, in the corner where he stood at bay. Excited at the sight of blood, the woman continued her shots, wounding Ferguson in four places, and then rushed upon him with a knife. Just as the keen point touched his body, he fired a fatal shot, and the graceful, fascinating and beautiful woman fell upon her once loved paramour a corpse. The crowd broke through the door, and gathered around the forms of those who had figured in this singular and dreadful strife.

Before the fair woman, whose fiendish spirit had caused this dreadful havoc, could be lifted from the form of Ferguson, he had expired. Many looked on in awe and silence, and perhaps the scene in that house of depravity may rest as a warning to the many debased people who visited its wicked walls. The faces of the dead wore a deep-set look, and on Ferguson's could be seen that of surprise and determination.

THE BURNSIDE MINE AT PETERSBURG —The explosion of the Burnside mine at that point of the Union defences before Petersburg has been held by many to have been an entire failure, but it seems it was otherwise. A recent visitor to the spot had the following information from a gentleman who accompanied him:

I was an officer in the Confederate army, and I was in this fight and all others that occurred in this immediate vicinity. I saw that explosion and know of the effects, and let me assure you it was no failure. The mine was sprung immediately under a battery supported by 200 men, and of that number only two escaped; and notwithstanding all our newspapers may have said to the contrary, in those desperate charges which were made on the day and succeeding the explosion, we lost 3,000 men, and no one thing during the war produced such a demoralizing influence among our troops, and, in my opinion, tended more strongly to terminate the contest From that day desertions became more frequent, and from the uncertain horrors which that event threw around service "in front," the greatest dissatisfaction began to prevail in all the ranks of the army.

A WONDERFUL MAN.—There appeared in Paris, in the sixteenth century, one Micah Alder, calling himself the Wandering Jew, and claiming to have lived somewhere about sixteen hundred years; and to have visited all parts of the earth. He was familiar with every important event and date since the birth of Christ, and was not confused by the most intricate cross questioning, but answered readily No one could address him in a language he was ignorant of. He was visited by all the literati of the city, who believed him to be an imposter, but went away bewildered and astonished. He suddenly disappeared from Paris.

"May I inquire where the Police Court is?"
"Certainly, sir"
"Then, where is it?"
"I haven't the slightest idea."

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of Portland and the traveling community, that he is now ready to receive and entertain all who may favor him with a call, in a manner and at prices to suit the times.

"THE GLOBE" is a NEW HOUSE, just finished; the rooms are large, well ventilated and eligibly furnished with carpets, &c., &c. The table will always be supplied with the very best the market affords.

It will be the constant and earnest endeavor of the proprietor to so conduct the "GLOBE HOTEL" as to give entire satisfaction to his guests; he would therefore respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

my3·1m PHILIP SCHAD,

VANCOUVER HOUSE,

Foot of Main Street, opposite the Steamboat Landing,

VANCOUVER, W. T.

THE undersigned begs leaves to inform the public that he has lately opened the above-named House, and is now ready to receive guests. His table will be well supplied and he has very superior accommodations for lodging. The House has been thoroughly renovated and enlarged, and being conveniently located near the several steamboat landings, commends itself particularly to the transient custom. The proprietor, by strict attention to the comfort of his patrons, hopes to receive a due share of the public patronage. H. REINHARDT, uh22d3m Proprietor.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast; more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes; therefore parties contemplating using our wheel, to be certain of securing them in time, should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them. Address

Fountain of Life!

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARRIVE when a new direction is imparted to its course These epochs are marked by the discovery of new facts shedding light which changes the whole aspect of the science The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

SCROFULA AND KING'S EVIL!

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts, it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more easily and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting.

Dr. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made —provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE:

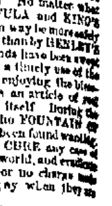

I would refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.

DR. WM HENLEY, feb8d4ptf Portland, Oregon.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE,

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies so that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various [illegible] about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, [illegible] eruption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity, If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and safe entire mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding him self to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in a registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 2[illegible].

AT THE

Bennett House,

SALEM, OREGON.

L. JAY S. TURNEY,

HAVING LEASED THE ABOVE NAMED HOTEL is prepared to accommodate the travelling public, and ONE HUNDRED REGULAR BOARDERS, in as good style as any House on the Coast. He has determined to make the "Bennett" as good as the best and better than any public house in Salem He will soon complete some important improvements, which will add greatly to its appearance and comfort, and intends to merit and hopes to receive his share of patronage

He has secured the services of "Charley" (known to be the best cook in Salem, and one of the best in the whole country) and other competent persons to [illegible] the culinary department, and is resolved to set as good a table as can be found anywhere—not in clap trap, pomp and show, flummery and fine furniture, but in an abundant supply of the very best the market affords

His Bar-room will be kept warmed and lighted, and well supplied with newspapers, periodicals and other suitable reading matter, and kept in a manner which will make it an agreeable resort.

In short, he intends making an effort to please all who stop at the BENNETT HOUSE And he most respectfully requests his friends everywhere to give the old and well known stand at least one more trial before concluding they can do as well elsewhere, and promises if they are not well treated and properly cared for, and at reasonable figures, it will not be the fault of the public's most obedient and most humble servant,
